- Form 1099-G Unemployment Insurance Tax Fraud

- If you received a 1099-G form and did not file a UI claim yourself or your employer did not file one on your behalf, you may be the victim of UI fraud. The GDOL has developed a secure form for reporting potential UI tax fraud.

- When criminals fraudulently claim benefits in someone else's name, we must investigate and confirm fraud before we can update the IRS.

- In 2020, international and domestic crime rings used previously stolen personal information obtained in prior nationwide breaches of various companies to fraudulently claim unemployment benefits in states across the country.

- If you get a 1099-G for unemployment benefits you didn't receive in 2020

- Report fraud to us by visiting Report UI Fraud & Abuse and selecting Report 1099 ID Theft at the bottom of the form. Follow the instructions to report the 1099-G Fraud.
