Do my online login credentials need to change?

No, all online platforms and login credentials (username and password) are valid. Please note if you use Google Password Manager, you may be asked to update your login credentials as Google recognizes your saved passwords specific to a domain (website URL).

Do debit cards with the PayFlex brand still work?

Yes, the current debit cards with the PayFlex brand still work through the expiration date identified on your card.

How does this name change affect my health insurance?

It does not affect your health insurance. Inspira only administers your health savings account (HSA), flexible spending account (FSA) or similar benefits and does not administer your health insurance benefits.

What should you expect?

You can expect a seamless experience without an interruption in service. We'll continue to provide updates and support you every step of the way.
