

Blomeyer Health Fitness Center Closure Frequently Asked Questions Effective Closure Date: July 31, 2025

We understand that the closure of Blomeyer Health Fitness Center raises many questions. Below, we've outlined key information to help guide you through this transition.

1. Why is Blomeyer Health Fitness Center closing?

Due to necessary budget adjustments and declining usage, we have made the difficult decision to close Blomeyer Health Fitness Center. This closure is part of a broader effort to realign our well-being offerings to better support the evolving needs of the Emory community. Blomeyer has been a meaningful space for connection and growth, and we sincerely appreciate its role in our community. While this closure represents a significant change for our members, it also gives us the opportunity to explore more impactful ways to deliver health and wellness resources.

2. When will the facility officially close?

The last day of operation for Blomeyer Health Fitness Center will be Thursday, July 31, 2025.

3. Will I receive a refund for my membership?

No. Your final membership charge will be for July, and there will be no membership charges after 7/31/2025. We will not offer refunds for membership months that have passed.

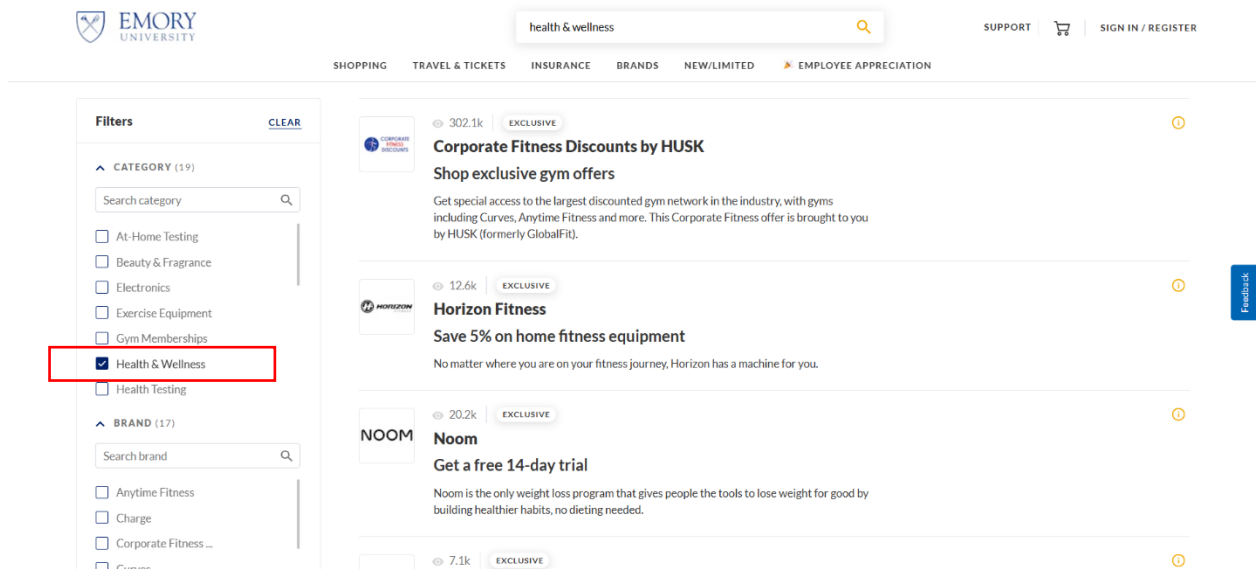

4. Are there alternative fitness options available through Emory?

Yes! Emory remains committed to supporting your well-being. You will have a free 7-day pass to utilize for each of the below locations. Please reach out to the facilities to learn how to start your 7-day pass today. You must utilize your free pass by August 31, 2025.
