Understanding K-12 School Options in Metro Atlanta

Different types of educational opportunities available throughout metro Atlanta. Brett Hardin, PhD.

Brett has over 25 years of work experience in the K-12 educational realm. As the ninth largest metropolitan city can be overwhelming. This workshop is designed to help sort through the choices and shed light on the important factors that families may want to consider as they explore various educational options. The workshop will help parents gain different perspectives on educational opportunities and make informed decisions for their children.

Upcoming Staff Recruitment Training will be held at Emory University Health Sciences Campus.
